A talented attacking midfielder currently playing for Joe Public FC of the Trinidad and Tobago Pro League, Kerry Noray has made a name for himself as a quick and agile football player with a keen ability to finish. Noray began his professional career with the esteemed San Juan Jabloteh, where he has spent four of his last six seasons. His talents were immediately recognized as a member of that team, and Kerry went on to lead the team in goals scored in his first two years of professional play. Then, in 2006, Kerry attracted the attention of Lebanese soccer club Safa F.C., where he spent a year before returning to Trinidad to play for Jabloteh and Joe Public.
